

Hi!

My name is Jesse Collier. I have been doing Graphic Design for over fifteen years and I want to work for you.

Jesse H. Collier

1238 North June Street, Los Angeles, California 90038
949-374-0326 jesse@jessecollier.com

Experience

Lead Graphic Designer— Burkert— Irvine, California— 2001–Present

In charge of print projects ranging from magazine advertisements to full-color catalogs. Responsible for overseeing other designers, creation of interactive media and various websites utilizing technology such as database-driven Flash, ASP.NET and the latest CSS. Worked in conjunction with European design team to maintain company-wide aesthetic.

Graphic Designer— Acme Training Inc.— Laguna Beach, California— 1996–2000

Developed the artistic direction on projects for clients such as Xerox, Kawasaki and Alcon. Applications varied from online web courses to fully interactive training discs to digital archives. Conceptualized projects that included media packaging, logo design and vector illustrations.

Education

B.A. Studio Art, Minor in The Digital Arts— 2006
University of California, Irvine
Summa Cum Laude

Technical Proficiency

Adobe Creative Suite— Photoshop, InDesign, Illustrator, Dreamweaver, Flash, Fireworks and Acrobat, as well as Director, Apple Final Cut Pro, Microsoft Office and legacy applications such as PageMaker and FreeHand. Also the maintenance and administration of Windows and Macintosh systems and networks.

Special Accomplishments

- Selected into juried exhibition “Formally Yours” at University Art Gallery (2005)
- Graphics Editor of Saddleback College’s award-winning weekly newspaper, the Lariat. (1994–1995)
- Contributing artist on Saddleback College’s annual award-winning magazine, the Inkslinger. (1994–1995)
- Accepted into the Young Artist Studio program at Otis/Parsons School of Art and Design. (1992)

Special Recognition

- JACC (Journalism Association of Community Colleges) Southern California Conference—
First Place awards for Information Graphic (1995) and Editorial Cartoon (1993)
Second Place award for Editorial Cartoon (1995)
Third Place award for Editorial Cartoon (1994)
Honorable Mentions for Advertising Design and Magazine Line Illustration (1994)
- 1995 JACC State Conference— Honorable Mention for Advertising Design
- 1995 Victor Hubbard Art Achievement Award— “To a Lariat artist who has shown excellence in editorial cartooning.”
- 1994 National Pacemaker Award given to Lariat for being one of the nation’s top five community college newspapers.

An online portfolio is available at www.jessecollier.com